PREARRANGED ABSENCES

Mancos School District values attendance in person and academic achievement is optimal when in class. For prearranged absences, the student is responsible for make-up of missed work. Work must be completed no later than the number of days absent plus one day. Teachers will provide make-up work, however they may not be available to re-teach material or have material available prior to the start of prearranged absence. Any tests missed will need to be completed, as determined by the teacher.
